Peter Wilson

CV

*1950. Lives and works in Münster, DE.

Peter Wilson is an Australian born, German based architect. He studied at the University of Melbourne, Australia, 1969-71, before attending the Architectural Association from 1972-74, and graduating with the Diploma Prize. He subsequently taught at the AA from 1974-88. In 1980 he set up his practice Bolles+Wilson with Julia Bolles-Wilson and relocated to Münster, Germany in 1989. Alongside design work, Peter Wilson has lectured and run studios worldwide, acting as Guest Professor for both the Kunsthochschule Weißensee and the Accademia di Architettura Mendrisio. He was a visiting professor from 2013 to 2014 at the Edinburgh School of Architecture and Landscape Architecture and an International Fellow of the RIBA since 2014. In 2009 he was awarded the President's Prize of the Australian Institute of Architects and in 2013 the Gold Medal of the Australian Institute of Architects.
